Spotlight Cultural Property Protection

70 YEARS OF THE 1954 HAGUE CONVENTION

Since 2016, the Center for Cultural Property Protection has hosted a lecture series called Spotlight Cultural Property Protection (Kulturgüterschutz konkret in German).

The 2024 series is dedicated to the 70th anniversary of the 1954 Hague Convention, including the topic of humanitarian and disaster response with relevance to cultural heritage protection.

On four evenings in 2024, two speakers and a chair each will discuss:

- The 1954 Hague Convention and prior attempts to protect cultural heritage in conflict.
- Training and education regarding cultural heritage protection, with a focus on exercises and the establishment of a national system for cultural heritage protection in emergency situations.
- Armed conflict and monitoring measures for the protection of cultural heritage, looking at current events in Ukraine as case studies.
- Humanitarian and disaster response for cultural heritage protection, focusing on earthquake situations and cultural heritage protection responses.

Spotlight Cultural Property Protection 2024 is held under the patronage of the Austrian Commission for UNESCO and in co-operation with the speaker's institutions.
